Event Description:

The Balvatika students of the down town School celebrated Grandparents' Day at Amar Ghar Old Age Home, Patharquarry, on 25th September 2026 with warmth, joy and affection.

The programme began with a welcome address, followed by a melodious welcome song presented by the students of Grade Sr. KG. A student of Grade 2 delivered a heartfelt speech highlighting the love, wisdom and importance of grandparents. Students of Grades 1 and 2 then delighted everyone with their lively dance performances. As a gesture of love and respect, the students presented small gifts to the grandparents on behalf of the school.

A few grandparents from the old age home shared their thoughts and experiences, making the occasion even more meaningful. The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to everyone who contributed to the programme and made the day memorable.
