Event Description:

The event commenced with a warm welcome address, followed by the introduction and felicitation of Chief guest and judge, Professor Utpal Datta. The ceremony began with the lighting of the lamp and a thought-provoking speech on the significance of Diwali set the tone for the festivities that followed.

The Inter-House Dance Competition unfolded in two segments. The first session showcased spectacular performances by Prithvi and Varun houses, demonstrating remarkable choreography and synchronization. Between the dance segments, certificates were distributed to the Students of the Month from Nursery through Grade 8, recognizing their outstanding achievements. The competition continued with captivating performances by Agni and Aakash houses, completing the inter-house competitive segment. Professor Utpal Datta shared valuable insights and feedback in his address, followed by an inspiring speech from our Principal, Mrs. Maya Alfred Fernandes.

The much-anticipated results were announced, generating tremendous excitement among the participants and audience alike. The event concluded formally with a heartfelt vote of thanks and the singing of the National Anthem. The celebrations ended on a high note with an impromptu free dance session, allowing students and teachers to join in the festivities.
